

Warhol

at the WHITNEY

View “Andy Warhol — from A to B and Back Again”, and Lunch at Bubby’s Highline afterwards!

The show illuminates the breadth, depth, and interconnectedness of the artist’s production: from his beginnings as a commercial illustrator in the 1950s, to his iconic Pop masterpieces of the early 1960s, to the experimental work in film and other mediums from the 1960s and 70s, to his innovative use of ready-made abstraction and the painterly sublime in the 1980s.

LUNCH at BUBBY’S HIGHLINE
Renowned for its simple and fresh comfort food, Bubby’s is dedicated to defending the American table and its traditions with thoughtful ingredient sourcing and an “off the commercial food grid” philosophy.

...And if time permits, we will walk on the Highline to the Chelsea Market and Artists and Fleas emporium for SHOPPING!
